HANDWRITING
WORDS → SENTENCES
ROADMAP

Individual Letters

Begin with consistent legible letter writing.

Single Words

Then you can begin having the child write words usually familiar or words of interest

Short Phrases

Next comes short phrases that are usually 2-4 words.

Longer or Multiple Sentences

Now you can build on the child's ability to write sentences by writing more or writing longer sentences.

*Note: These points are not strict steps to write letters, words, and sentences, but may be helpful depending on your child and the situation.
